Region of Peel Makes Record Contribution to United Way

The Region of Peel launched its 2006 Employee United Way Campaign and surpassed its fundraising goal of $201,000 by 23 per cent, to reach a record contribution of $247,277. Together with funds raised from Peel Regional Police, a total contribution of $374,559 was donated to the United Way of Peel Region.

As part of the 2006 campaign, the United Way of Peel Region awarded both the Region of Peel and Peel Regional Police with the 2006 Outstanding Public Sector Joint Union-Management Campaign Spirit Award and the Region of Peel with the Campaign Chair's Award of Merit.

"The United Way of Peel Region has a tremendous responsibility in monitoring the needs of 54 community agencies," said Regional Councillor Gael Miles, Management Committee. "It is with great pride that the Region of Peel is available to assist those who need our help, whether for basic needs, family support or human services. We thank all those who participated."

The 2006 campaign theme, Give Today, Change Tomorrow, was aimed at showing employees how their contributions make a difference. An awareness campaign was launched to educate employees on how even a few dollars from each paycheck can help purchase meals for those in poverty or family counselling sessions.

On March 1, 2007, the Region of Peel and Peel Regional Police presented the United Way of Peel Region with a cheque for $374,559.

"Peel employees were incredibly motivated to meet our target goal this year and were successful in exceeding it," said David Szwarc, Chief Administrative Officer for the Region of Peel. "We are committed to helping the community through paycheck contributions, events, or volunteering. It is important to realize that even small gestures can make a big difference in the lives of those who need it most."
